

South Windsor Testimonial

We have been working with Bay State Textiles since July and have found the entire team to be professional and a pleasure to work with. They have shown time after time to be punctual with their pickup schedule and container deliveries. The containers that we have received are neat and clean which allows us to place them in prominent locations around town. We have recently placed containers at each of our schools allowing the program to continue to grow.

-Tony Manfre
Superintendent of Pollution Control
South Windsor, CT